*Recommended Courses for Domestic Students: Students should complete as many of the recommended courses as possible. Students who have not completed these courses before transfer will have difficulty making progress towards their SF State degree in their selected major program. Although these courses are not absolutely required for admission, the impacted department may review completion of these courses when making admission's decisions.

*Required Courses for Domestic Students: Students should complete all courses listed as required for admission by impacted programs. Students who have not completed required courses will not be considered for admission by the impacted department.

*International Students: Transfer students from foreign institutions are not held to minimum CSU admission requirements including the 4-basic subject areas. For recommended courses, students should complete as many as possible. Although these courses are not absolutely required for admission, the impacted department may review completion of these courses when making admission decisions.
