

San Francisco State University Self-Guided Campus Tour

1. Student Services

Home of the One Stop Student Services Center. Here you can clarify the status of your admissions or financial aid applications, order transcripts and more. You'll also find bursar/cashier services, the Disability Programs and Resource Center (DPRC), Counseling and Psychological Services, Career Services & Leadership Development, OneCard services, the Registrar's Office, Student Outreach Services and Veterans Services.

2. Burk Hall

This building houses the Graduate College of Education, the Family, Interiors, Nutrition, & Apparel Department and the School of Nursing. The student-run Vista Room restaurant is on the fourth floor.

3. Student Health Center

This medical clinic offers outpatient care for illness and injury, lab tests and X-rays, family planning, personal counseling and more. The student health fee covers most services.

4. Ethnic Studies and Psychology

This is home to the College of Ethnic Studies, which includes Africana Studies, American Indian Studies, Asian American Studies, Latina/Latino Studies and Race and Resistance Studies. The Psychology Department is on the third floor.

5. Gymnasium

The Athletics and Kinesiology departments are located here. The building features two gyms, an indoor pool, a weight room and dance studios.

6. Thornton Hall

This is home to the College of Science & Engineering. Check out the fourth-floor planetarium and the roof observatory.

7. Hensill Hall

The Department of Biology and many of its programs, services and labs are here.

8. Science

The School of Engineering and the Marian Wright Edelman Institute can be found here.

9. HSS

The main offices of the College of Health & Social Sciences are located in this building, as are the Institute for Civic and Community Engagement (ICCE), TRiO Student Support Services, the Campus Academic Resource Program (CARP) and the Metro College Success Program.

10. Business

This is the home of the Lam Family College of Business. Students have access to a variety of resources, including Metro Academics advisors, the Career Services & Professional Development Center and a computer lab.

11. Administration

Many administrative and business offices and some student and academic services are here. They include Undergraduate Advising, a Bursar's Office service station, Information Technology Services, Graduate Studies, Human Resources, the President's Office and Undergraduate Studies.

12. J. Paul Leonard Library

The Library is a state-of-the-art teaching and learning center housing its own Special Collections & Archives as well as the Sutro Library, Academic Technology and the Center for Equity and Excellence in Teaching and Learning. This fully accessible facility provides an environment for study and collaboration, including computing and other technology support, reservable rooms and a Digital Media Studio/MakerSpace. The Library also offers access to an extensive collection of knowledge resources, including online databases, journals, ebooks and physical books, journals and media.

13. Cesar Chavez Student Center

Named in honor of the late labor leader, this building — known for its many murals — houses the SF State Bookstore, restaurants, lounges, a multicultural center, a pub, a student art gallery and ATMs. This is also home to the Associated Students organization. An Information Desk can be found by the entrance closest to the Quad.

14. Garden of Remembrance

The Garden of Remembrance honors Japanese Americans — among them 19 SF State students — interned during World War II. The 10 rocks represent the 10 U.S. internment camps, while the waterfall and flowers symbolize the internees' return to their homes.

15. Fine Arts

The Fine Arts building features a film soundstage, an animation studio, recording and mixing rooms, film- and sound-editing labs, digital media labs, a state-of-the-art collections preservation facility and various art studios. The offices for the School of Art, the School of Cinema, the School of Design and the Department of Anthropology can be found here. Classes and motion picture screenings are held at the 150-seat August Coppola Theater on the first floor. The Fine Arts Gallery and the Global Museum are on the second floor.

16. Creative Arts

This is home to Broadcast and Electronic Communication Arts (BECA) as well as the School of Music and the School of Theatre & Dance. Performances are held in the McKenna Theatre, Knuth Hall, the Studio Theatre, the Little Theatre and other spaces, and there are multiple set, costume and prop construction labs.

17. Humanities

This building houses the College of Liberal & Creative Arts and most of its departments as well as the Poetry Center, the American Poetry Archives and the American Language Institute.

18. The Village at Centennial Square

The Village at Centennial Square is an apartment-style community that provides residents with a social/lifestyle experience by incorporating eating options, a convenience store and a number of different living communities. Furnished two- and three-bedroom apartments are available for first-time freshmen.

19. Residence Halls

Mary Park Hall and Mary Ward Hall are traditional residence hall communities for freshmen. These communities offer a wide variety of resources, support and programs designed to facilitate successful transition to the campus community.

20. The Towers at Centennial Square

The Towers at Centennial Square offers students an opportunity to feel more independent through full suite-style housing. Furnished one- and two-bedroom units are available for freshmen along with various Living Learning Communities designed to provide a more meaningful and connected experience. Adjacent to this building is the Towers Jr. Suites, which offers freshmen semi suite-style housing along with various themed living communities.

21. The Mashouf Wellness Center

This student-driven facility features a climbing wall, exercise studios, gymnasium spaces, an indoor pool facility with spa and sauna, a jogging track, racquetball/squash courts and more. The center offers recreation and wellness programs and activities including game nights, outdoor trips, wellness workshops, personal training, intramural and sport clubs, group fitness classes and more.

22. New Creative Arts I

Future home of Broadcast and Electronic Communication Arts (BECA).

23. Future Student Housing and Retail

24. and 25. University Park South and North

These communities provide independent apartment living for transfer students, returning residents and students with families. They are conveniently located next to campus and provide a variety of housing options.

Note: The facilities on this tour are generally accessible for persons with disabilities. Some buildings have areas that merit special consideration for wheelchair users. For more information on accessible pathways, power-door entrances, building elevators, accessible restrooms and limited-access facilities, consult SF State's online campus map (sfsu.edu/~sfsu/mapp) or pick up a campus access guide and map brochure in the lobby of the Student Services building.
